Partouse Rosé 2015

It was one of you, passing by the winery last summer, who nourished the idea in me to name this new Rosé wine. It's the first harvest of this vineyard planted with old grape varieties of the Languedoc in 2011. This is an assembly of "commoners" - Aramon, Picquepoul, Morrastel and Rivairenc - accompanied by the so-called "noble" grape varieties Cinsault and Grenache. From this blend, this assembly, this gathering, this mix ... of all these varieties, a wine with an evocative name was born...
